Black Nappa Leather interior, 'One of the nicest example we have seen for some time' - this model needs little introduction to the die hard enthusiast - the finest incarnation of the last normally aspirated M3 model ever produced = the legendary S54 engine mated to the beautiful 6 speed manual gearbox makes a heady and addictive drive.

The unmistakable flared arches and fabulous build quality make this shape one of our favourite of all time.

The leather is supple and virtually unmarked throughout as are the carpets and interior trim.

The car has both keys plus original books, service book and a file of supporting invoices.

Tool kit and inflation kit all intact and perfect.
